North Bryan County
Unclaimed Property

What is Unclaimed Property?

Unclaimed property refers to accounts held by financial institutions and other businesses who have lost contact with their owner of record. Unclaimed property includes, but is not limited to wages, savings accounts, customer refunds, accounts payable, insurance payments, shares of stock, escrow funds, royalties, and contents from safe deposit boxes. Most property is reported to the program after five years of inactivity.

How do I search for my Unclaimed Property in Georgia?

1. Go to the Unclaimed Property Search
2. You will need your name and social security number to begin the search.
3. If you are required to submit a printed claim form, please see section C of the form for additional required documentation.
